

EL CAMINO REAL

de los Tejas Caddo Region

ANTIQUE

Shopping Guide

esignated as a National Historic Trail in 2004, El Camino Real de los Tejas has its easternmost beginning in Natchitoches, Louisiana and runs from piney woods through rolling hills in Texas to the arid lands of Old Mexico. This Spanish Royal Road was established to link Mexico City with Los Adaes, the provincial city of Texas from 1722 to 1772. The Caddo (Crossroads) region of the El Camino Real traverses from Natchitoches, La through Many, La to Milam, San Augustine, Nacogdoches, Alto and Crockett, Tx.
