

PRIVATE CALVIN HARBAUGH

Enlisted on June 8, 1861, right at the beginning of the war; he was just 19 years old and worked as a laborer. If you were a laborer in the 19th century, you could have been employed in a factory, on a farm, or any place where physical labor was required to get a job done. This likely meant that Calvin was strong and made a good soldier.