

PRIVATE DAVID E. JOHNS

Was just 18 years old when he enlisted with Company K. David was a laborer by trade, and that meant that he could have been employed in a factory, on a farm, or any place where physical labor was required to get a job done. This also likely meant that David was strong and made a good soldier.