

CORPORAL HENRY BEAMER

Was a 22-year-old carpenter when he enlisted at the organization of the company. Captain Minnigh wrote that he “never shirked duty, and was always on hand”... and that’s probably why he was promoted to 2nd Corporal on March 7, 1863. No one knew then that they would soon be called upon for duty near their hometown of Gettysburg!