

PRIVATE JOHN DUEY

Was a member of the company from the very beginning, and was promoted to Second Sergeant. However he deserted (left without permission) for a time in 1862 and was therefore demoted back to rank of Private. John Duey never again deserted and would soon prove his strength of heart in battle.