

PRIVATE WILSON NAILOR

Was only 16 years old when he joined the army, but reported himself as 19 and a student. At the time, he stood 5' 10" tall (so could pass as older than he was), had brown hair, grey eyes, and a dark complexion. Nailor was the grandson of Jacob Benders, the founder of Bendersville in northern Adams County. At enlistment he was listed as "Musician".
