Now Showing - LIBERTY 360

This month, bring the whole family to see Liberty 360, the first 360-degree, 3D experience ever developed, now showing in the new PECO Theater in the Historic Philadelphia Center. Beat the summer crowds and be among the first to experience this incredible new 12-minute show that immerses viewers in symbols of freedom.

Step inside the specially-designed, cylindrical theater, and Benjamin Franklin appears in a groundbreaking 360-degree, 3D show. Dr. Franklin escorts the audience on a journey of discovery and exploration of America's most beloved symbols. This is a one-of-a-kind experience you won't want to miss!

R. Kennedy

In addition to housing the Liberty 360 show, the new Historic Philadelphia Center serves as a hub for Historic Philadelphia, Inc.'s attractions and tours. Get information about Franklin Square and the Betsy Ross House and shop for unique gift items.

Liberty 360 runs 10 a.m. – 6 p.m. Mondays through Saturdays and 11 a.m. – 5 p.m. Sundays in March. Tickets are $7 for adults and $6 for children 12 and under, as well as for seniors and active military members. For more information, call (215) 629-4026 or visit historicphiladelphia.org.

This Month at Independence National Historical Park

March is Women's History Month, and Independence National Historical Park invites all our visitors to join us in commemoration and celebration.

On Saturdays and Sundays in March, join a National Park Service Ranger for a program about the Women's American Revolution. Even though women were denied equal citizenship by the founding fathers, they used the traditions and symbols from the American Revolution to gain their own independence during the Woman's Suffrage Movement. This free, 30-minute program is offered at 3 p.m. on Saturdays and Sundays in March and will begin at the Portrait Gallery of the Second Bank.

What's the Independence connection? You may know that the Liberty Bell was used as a symbol of freedom for anti-slavery and abolitionist groups, but did you also know that the Liberty Bell was also used as a symbol for the Women's Suffrage Movement? A replica of the Liberty Bell came to be known as the "Woman's Liberty Bell." And Susan B. Anthony presented the Women's Declaration of Rights and Articles of Impeachment Against the United States to Vice President Ferry on Independence Square on July 4, 1876.

National Park Service

Throughout the month of March, visitors can also stop by the print shop in Franklin Court and see Park Rangers printing the Mary Katherine Goddard broadside of the Declaration of Independence. Goddard was the first printer to print the Declaration with the signers' names.
