Welcome to Independence!

At Independence National Historical Park, April means class trips, daffodils, and National Park Week! National Park Week is a presidentially-proclaimed time to celebrate the diversity, beauty, and history found in our national park system. First proclaimed in 1991 by President George H.W. Bush to celebrate the 75th anniversary of the National Park Service, this week is a time to renew our passion and commitment to the resources we protect.

National Park Week April 16-24, 2011

Healthy Parks Healthy People

During National Park Week, April 16-24, the National Park Service is putting the focus on Healthy Parks, Healthy People to highlight the role of public lands in the growing movement to address the connection between human and environmental health.

National Park Week is also a chance for all Americans to experience the majesty of the national park system for FREE. Visit any of America's national parks and enjoy free admission all week long!

Visit the Independence Visitor Center to pick up a list of daily events for National Park Week here at Independence National Historical Park.

Want to share your National Park Week experiences? Visit us at www.nps.gov/inde and link to our Twitter or Facebook pages to post your own photos and stories!

SERVICES

Language Services

Park maps are available in Arabic, Chinese, French, German, Hebrew, Italian, Japanese, Korean, Polish, Russian and Spanish. There is information in several languages about the Liberty Bell and other park sites. See a Ranger or ask at the Visitor Center if you have a specific request.

Accessibility

Curb cuts are at corners on perimeter sidewalks. All major sites have ramps. Photo albums with pictures of 2nd floor exhibits are available. Audio description of exhibits & AV are at Poe and Kosciuszko Houses, rangers describe exhibits elsewhere. All films are open captioned, with audio description and assisted listening.

To arrange for American Sign Language services, please contact us at least two weeks in advance. Use the relay service (800-654-5984-TTY) to call (215-597-7130).
