

Lincoln Boyhood National Memorial

Copyright 1963 Lloyd Ostendorf, used by permission

Nancy Hanks Lincoln Values Begin at Home

Thomas and Nancy Lincoln provided the environment which created their son Abraham's opposition to slavery. They were members of an anti-slavery church. In 1816, when Abraham was seven years old, the family moved to Indiana. It is believed that Abraham's parents preferred to bring up their children in a free state.

To learn more, visit: www.nps.gov/libo

NATIONAL PARK SERVICE