George H. Thomas Memorial

Location: 14th Street & M Street, N.W.

Dedicated: 1879

West Point graduate George Henry Thomas was born in Virginia. When the Civil War broke out Thomas did not join the Confederate cause, a decision that caused him to be disowned by his family. Maj. Gen. Thomas, the “Rock of Chickamauga,” saw great success during the 1864 Franklin/Nashville Campaign. The statue was a gift of the Society of the Army of the Cumberland.
