The Golden West Visitor Center

The Visitor Center offers information, camping permits, shuttle bus reservations, informative publications, and an orientation slide program.

Evening Programs

Offered throughout the summer, in the Golden West Visitor Center. Programs may or may not be illustrated.

Lady of the Lake Boat Program

On-the-boat programs are presented en route to Stehekin and returning to Chelan. Talks include local natural history, hands-on nature identification, and a Stehekin orientation. The ranger is available on the boat between talks to answer questions.

Boat Time Program

Boat-time ranger programs are presented in the Stehekin Landing area beginning on arrival of the Lady of the Lake. Identical programs are offered from 12:30 p.m. to 1:10 p.m. and from 1:10 p.m. to 1:50 p.m. It is possible to ride the North Cascades Lodge bus to Rainbow Falls and participate in the ranger program. Ranger programs include a guided walk to see historical exhibits and a slide program about Stehekin.

Buckner Orchard Historic Walks

The walks begin and end at the Stehekin Landing. Tour the largest remaining common delicious apple orchard in the United States and discuss early 1900 farming and homesteading.

Daily beginning June 16 to September 15, rangers will present a fire weather program at High Bridge around noon. This will last through September 15. Rangers will demonstrate how fire weather is taken.
