

Overmountain Victory National Historic Trail

Muster Grounds in the Backyard

Confederate Colonel Samuel V. Fulkerson's property had been used to muster troops in past wars. In April 1861, new recruits drilled here for nearly a month before serving in the 37th Virginia Infantry under the command of General Thomas "Stonewall" Jackson in the Shenandoah Valley Campaign of 1862.

To learn more, visit: www.nps.gov/owvi

NATIONAL PARK SERVICE