

Memorial
Stubblefield Radio National Monument, Ky.

General:

Location: In the town of Murray, in Calloway County.

KENTUCKY.

General Characteristics:

- (a) Scenic:
- (b) Historical: Site of the home of Nathan E. Stubblefield, reputed to be the original inventor of the radio.
- (c) Geological:
- (d) Recreational:
- (e) Biological:

Accessability: See "General"

Interested Individuals: L. J. Hortin, Secy. Chamber of Commerce, Murray, Kentucky.

Reports Proposed by Mr. Hortin in a letter of Aug. 9, 1934.

and On Sept. 7, 1934, Mr. Chatelain's office answered, stating that, as the radio is comparatively new, extended research would be necessary to determine the original inventor, and suggesting state park status.

Action:

STUBBLEFIELD RADIO

MEMORIAL