Yellowstone Beautiful— Astonishing!

YOU are cordially invited to Yellowstone Park. Let your "mind's eye" conceive the most beautiful mountain landscapes and the most amazing natural phenomena that you can. When you come to Yellowstone, you'll find the highest flights of your imagination outdone. The real things of Yellowstone are more beautiful and more surprising than you will believe possible in advance of actually seeing them.

There's the Grand Canyon of the Yellowstone River, declared by many to be the grandest picture formed and painted by Nature—"one wild welter of color," Rudyard Kipling said of this Canyon, "crimson, emerald, cobalt, ochre, amber, honey splashed with port wine, snow-white, vermilion, lemon and silver grey." Folsom wrote: "Language is entirely inadequate to convey a just conception of the awful grandeur and sublimity of this most beautiful of Nature's handiwork."

Another Yellowstone attraction, Old Faithful Geyser, is a spectacle so dramatic, it is worthy of a National Park just for itself. Unlike some natural wonders and temperamental prima donnas, Old Faithful never disappoints an audience—it is as dependable as the clock—once each hour it hurls a veritable mountain of boiling water and steam into the heavens, guaranteeing a thrill in every one of the 24 hours of the day.

Stand on top of the Washington monument, 555 feet above our national capital; imagine yourself on the pinnacle of 13 such monuments, each one above the other.

Your eyes would then be on a level with the surface waters of Yellowstone Lake, a magnificent mountain sea having a shore line of over 100 miles.

Yellowstone is an astonishing place—a park for the benefit and enjoyment of the people. Once in the lifetime of every American, there should be a trip to Yellowstone. Yellowstone is not costly—$36.00 buys a standard 2½ day tour, via hotels, including transportation on busses, eight meals and two lodgings, on basis of at least two people to a room and not including rooms with private bath.

The Yellowstone Hotels

It is surprising to find in the Rocky Mountain wilderness of the Yellowstone such huge, modern, luxurious Hotels. Emerson Hough voiced this surprise, when he wrote: "You travel and live in perfect comfort. That is almost the most astonishing thing about Yellowstone Park. You can photograph a wild bear and eat a course dinner within the same hour. You can see a herd of buffalo from your seat in a comfortable touring car. You can see the Canyon and geysers and the Grand Tetons and a dozen bold mountain lakes and streams and yet sleep in as good a bed as you left at home. Literally, the world has nothing like this."

Each of the Yellowstone Hotels has been designed to fit its surroundings. Old Faithful Inn provides a distinguished background for the geysers, which perform sensationally in its front yard. Mammoth Hotel, and adjoining modern cottages, becoming their environment, stand low on a horizon of colorful hot springs' terraces, hills and rocky towers. The Canyon Hotel, built in an open park in the surrounding forest adjacent to the Canyon, actually complements a landscape which might all too easily have been marred by unworthy architecture. These immense Hotels, each with its own character, have been made, furnished and are operated with the best of taste. Guest rooms afford metropolitan accommodations, their simplicity, cleanliness and restfulness bring a complete sense of satisfaction. In the dining rooms there are appetizing meals, excellently served. Other public rooms, lobbies, dancing and lounging places carry an air of luxury without overdoing it. Managers and employees skillfully foresee and attend to the needs of their house guests.

Lounge—Canyon Hotel

Yellowstone's Hotels have exceptionally fine dance and concert orchestras and they play generously for meals and for evening parties and entertainments. To make sure that Hotel guests have a thoroughly good time, there are hostesses to assist with social activities. At the Hotels, groups of young people organize horseback rides together, go motoring or fishing and attend the dances. Other guests rest and read on the comfortable verandas, take bus trips to nearby attractions, go walking with ranger-naturalists and thoroughly benefit from the hospitable, friendly, pleasant spirit one finds in the Yellowstone Hotels. Particularly enjoyable are the dances in the Lounge at Canyon Hotel; there are few ballrooms on the continent equal to the Lounge for dancing parties and how the orchestra and the guests do enter into the Canyon Hotel's evening dances and concerts! To have the privilege of dancing in, or watching from an easy chair, the parties at Grand Canyon Lounge makes a stay at Canyon Hotel very much worth while. There is an air of hospitable informality at the Hotels—you'll feel at home from the very first.

Do Not Hurry

Unlike city parks, which may be crowded for room, Yellowstone Park has literally thousands of square miles, 3,348 to be exact. If you come—and you are most cordially invited and urged to come—do not hurry. Plan to stay a week or more at each Hotel. If you have only a limited number of days for your vacation spend at least 4 or 5 in Yellowstone. But if you possibly can, stay a month or all summer. You will never live a better or more interesting summer in all your life.
